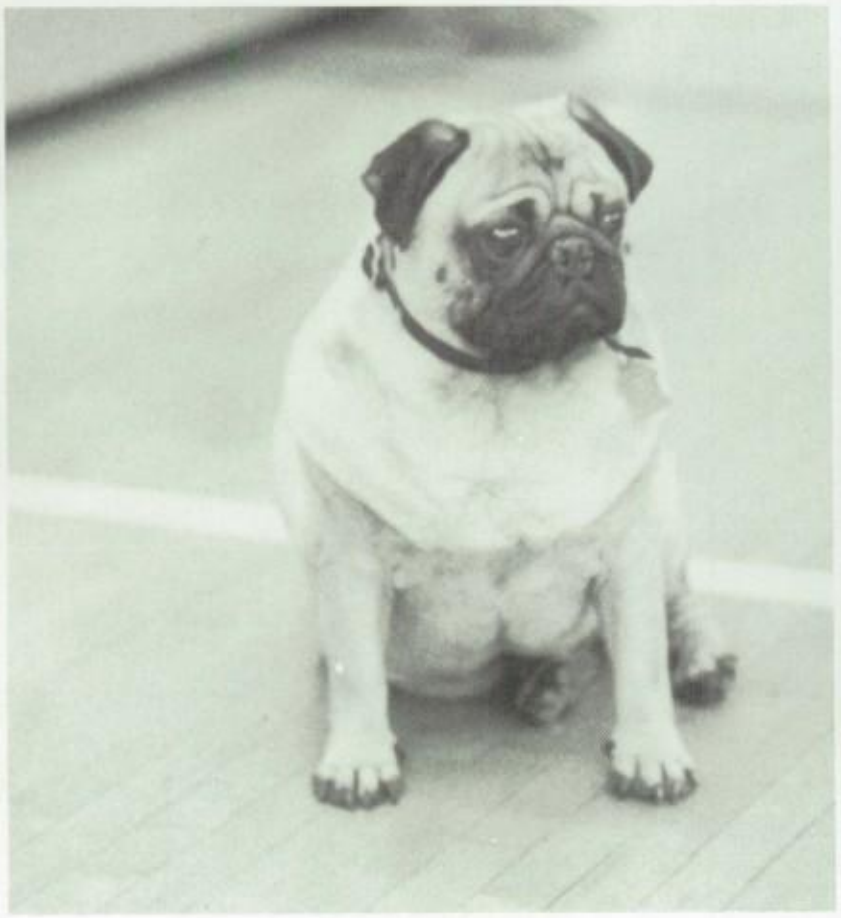
Nelson Trombley

His door is always open . . . Always. Music emanates from his room. His Creed — "Minds at work" . . . his heart always open to students. He possesses the rare quality of being both a friend and teacher. For this, and his warm generosity, we fondly dedicate the 1984 Torch to

Nelson Trombley



Big, fat, hairy deal.

What do you mean cancelled???

Anywhere . . . but here.

Just one date . . . PLEASE!

"Those crazy nights I do remember in my youth I do recall those were the best times most of all"
— Journey

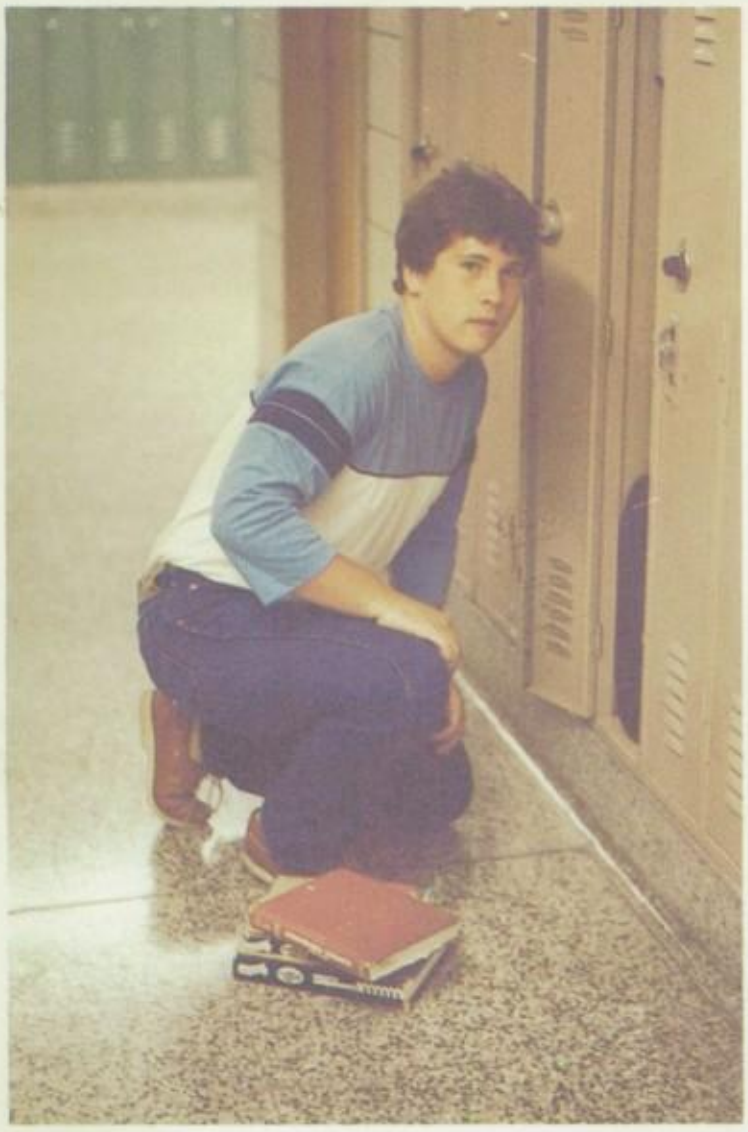
What do you mean I was wrong!

It's hard to be humble!

Let me sleep, Fitz . . .



Happy Monday!

You're kidding, right?

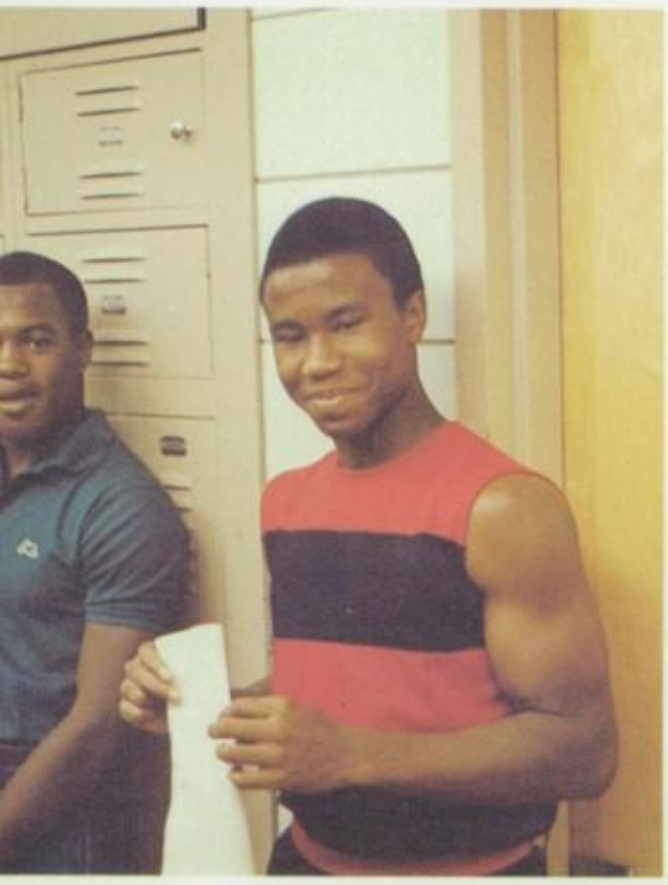
Remember, concentrate

Look Ma — no cavities!

I just can't do this!

C'mom, Soheila, it's good for ya!

It's Friday! smile



That's right — we bad

Yeah Andy — they're pom-poms

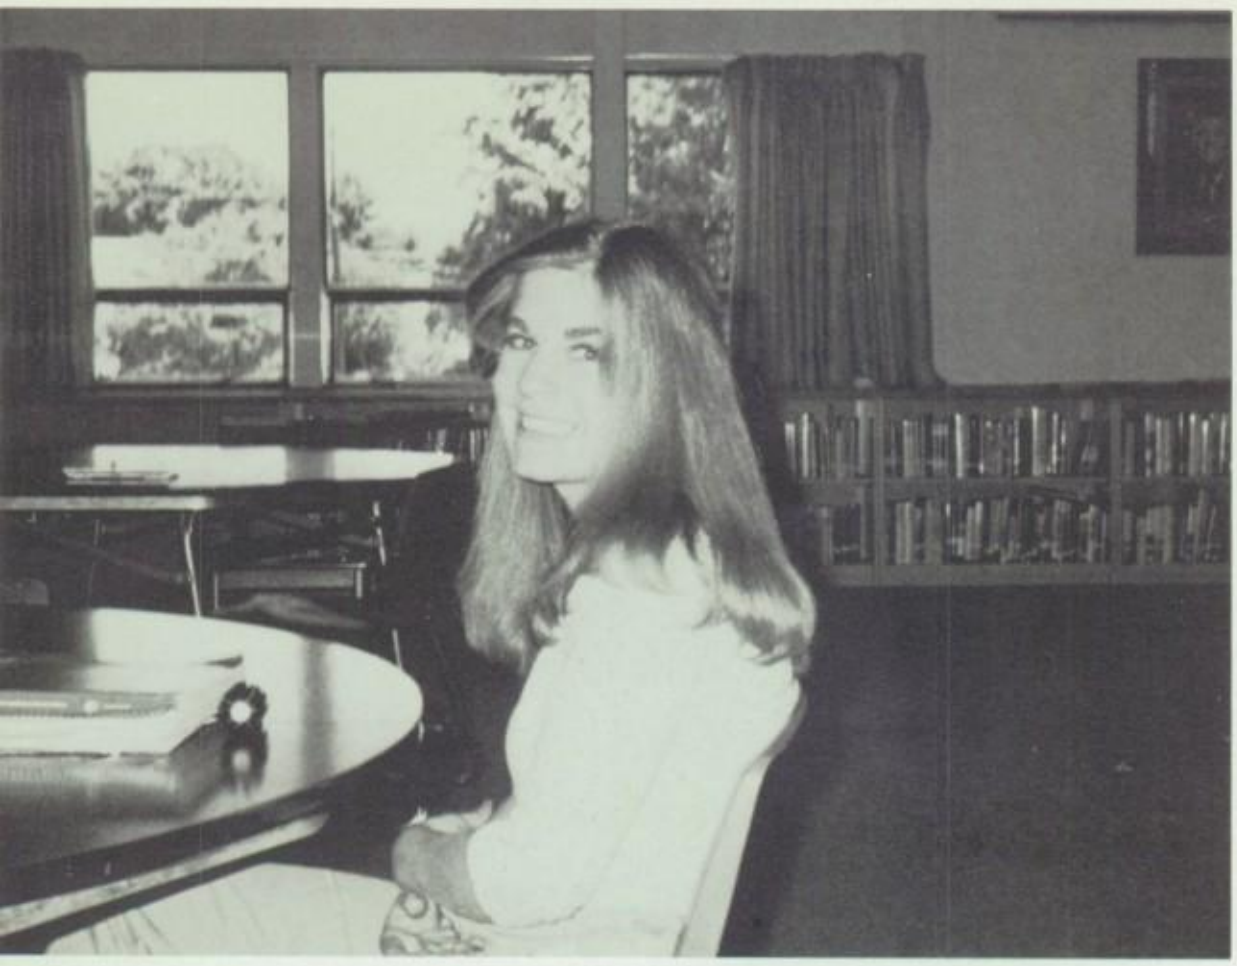
Did someone say talent search?

What syntax error?

The Peanut Gallery

SELL!!! please?

Peek-a-boo!



Gee, Mrs. Morgan, was I talking?

"For long you live and high you fly and smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry and all you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be."

— Pink Floyd

The gang's all here . . .

Oh no! another mistake

We didn't do it . . . or did we?

Just make it look good

Puttin' on the Ritz.

Just think of the possibilities

Definitely star quality!

Just get up and hit, Lem!

You have to learn to pace yourself
— Pressure
you're just like everybody else
— Pressure
you've only had to run so far so good but you will come to a place where the only thing you feel are loaded guns in your face and you'll have to deal with

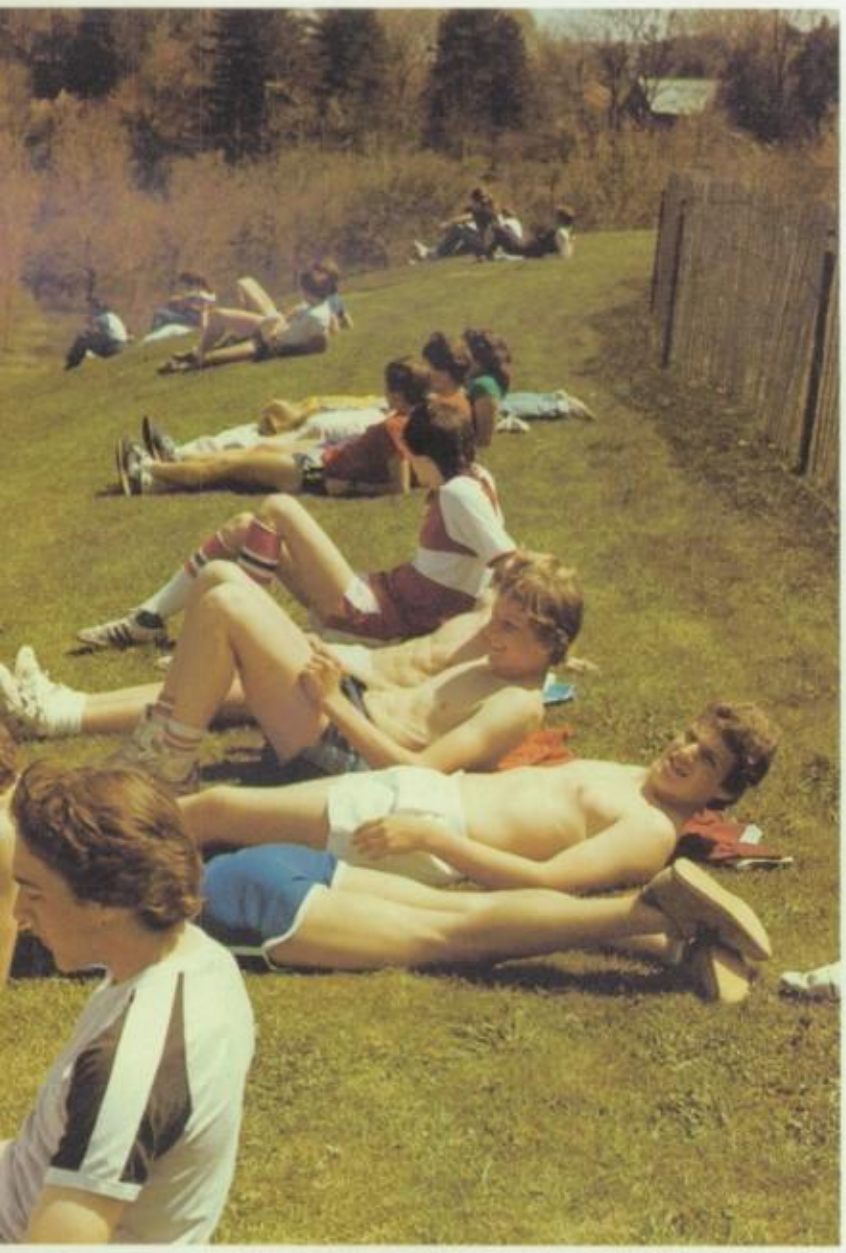
PRESSURE!

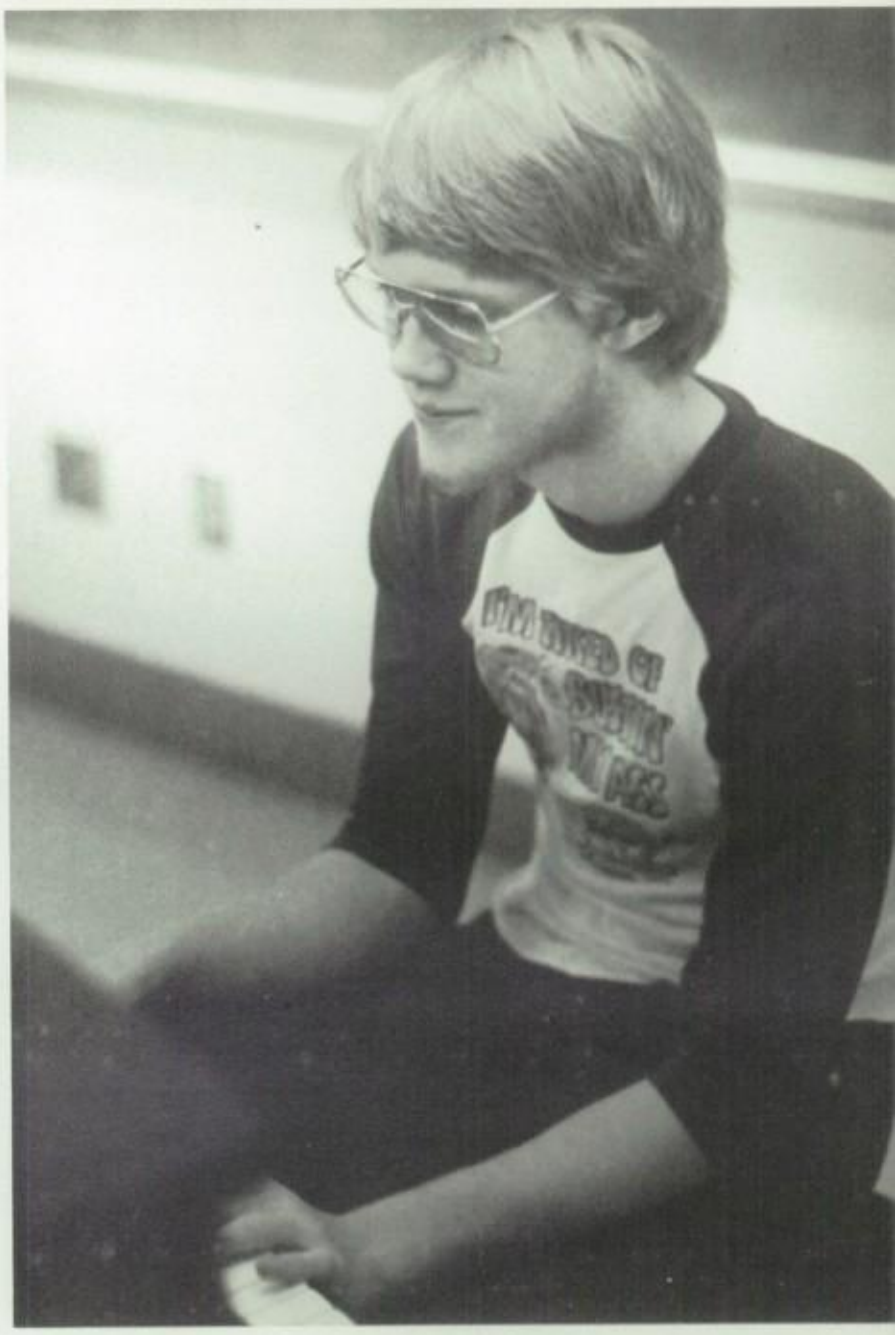
— Billy Joel



Tanning at its best!

Intense!

That's right, I skipped!



Mostly Mozart!

All day and all night!

SENIORS

Mrs. Todd

Mr. Hunt

You were always there to help us . . .
Always optimistic, even when things looked dreary.
You laughed with us, but you were firm when needed.
For everything you have done to enhance these last four years for us, we thank you sincerely.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Class of 1984, of the Elmira Free Academy, City of Elmira, County of Chemung, State of New York being of sound mind and memory do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former Wills by us at any time made, in the manner and form following:

To the English department, the Torch staff leaves the blue cushioned chair that was so graciously donated.
To Miss Novak's dissection class, the physics students leave Mrs. Reiter's pigs.
To Tina Schweitzer, Dan Lynn and Andy Lepkoske leave their height.
To Laurie Martin, Wendy Martin leaves the Girls' Basketball bench.
To her sister, Debbie Kennedy leaves her dizzy place in the cafe.
To everyone, Stuart Krause leaves his red car behind the east cafe.
To Mr. Alderfer, Samantha Lovell leaves a wad of chewing gum.
To her little brother Brian, Kim Latshaw leaves her intellectual knowledge.
To Kelly Linsblod, MaeLynn Masin leaves her quietness.
To Miss Novak, Renée Mouzon leaves table 2 seat 1.
To Mike Augustine, Chrisi Albee leaves her leopard skin underwear.
To Lee Moran, Missey Andreine leaves her Christmas present.
To Ann Lutomski, Kris Barbieri leaves her looks.
To anyone who can find it, Mike Troccia leaves his neck.
To Teri Ayers, Traci Ayers leaves her few study habits.
To Mrs. Winston, Jo-Ellen Baker leaves a year's supply of gum.
To anyone desiring senioritis, John Marciniak leaves his apathetic attitude to work.
To Mr. Hunt, the senior class leaves a sigh of relief.

We hereby nominate and appoint the class of 1985 as the Executor of this Last Will and Testament to serve without bond.

Student Council provides a platform for the collective voice of students, as well as providing opportunities for individual students to develop their own leadership abilities. It also provides a way for members to exchange ideas and experiences to help people better understand each other so as they can act as a complete unit.

Officers (L-R): John Holleran (President), Chris Albee (Secretary), Chris Odum (Treasurer), M
Mullaney (V. President)

PAL CLUB

The Pal Club is an organization which enables students to be a big brother or sister to underprivileged children. This club is enriching to the members as well as being beneficial to the community.

Row 1: K. Chase, E. Tolbert, C. Odum, J. Wald Row 2: J. Baker

LIBRARY COUNCIL

The EFA Library Council provides our students with a work experience program. Students work five periods a week doing jobs such as; shelving, mending and circulation desk duties. Every year during Library Book Week, the club puts on a book fair. The club raises its funds by having bake sales and car washes. These funds go toward the Eldrege Scholarship which is presented to a senior member who has done an outstanding job.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club at EFA is made up of enthusiastic students who build up school spirit. The club, during football season, sells ribbons, booster buttons and hats to support our school. The members of the club also run the concession stand at Dunn Fields as well as at the school.

Row 1: C. Paul, A. Cromwell, M. Baylor (V. Pres.), J. Baker, P. Bouille, C. Difasi, L. Frazier Row 2: S. Hoffman (Pres.), C. Jones (Treas.), D. Ames (Sec.), M. Courtney, J. Kennedy, L. Knapp, K. Flower Row 3: L. Hall, T. Brown, H. Peet, V. Ronkin, J. Chun, J. Booth, A. Carbin

KEY CLUB

The EFA Key Club is a service organization sponsored by the Elmira Kiwanis Club. The Key Club donates its time to help both in school activities and community projects. This year the club delivered 33 food baskets to the needy for Christmas and participated in the Izard Christmas parade. Both proved to be big successes.

In the spring of 1983, eighteen Academy students attended County Band at Edison High School. County Band allows students to meet other student musicians from the area; and together they work under a guest conductor to prepare a Saturday afternoon concert for the public.

AREA ALL-STATE

This year Area All-State was hosted by Southside, and twenty-eight students from Academy took part in the various ensembles. In addition to participating, many students from Academy also housed students who came from as far away as Canandaigua.

Five students from Academy attended the NYSSMA All-State conference in late November. They each auditioned in the spring of 1983, and participated in the Band, Wind Ensemble, and Mixed Chorus. The conference was held at the Concord Hotel and during the three day event, the students worked hard to prepare for their concerts; and had a chance to meet many new people from throughout the state.

A.F.S.

"The A.F.S. club is made up of students who are interested in exploring other cultures. The members of the club have a chance to be an exchange student or to host a student from a foreign country. This year's exchange students are:

Other activities included hosting parents during Open House activities and planning an induction ceremony for its new members.

VINDEX

The Vindex Staff at EFA is dedicated to keeping the student body abreast of what is going on in the school. The school paper, the Vindex, has many interesting entries, including letters from students expressing their concerns over school matters. The Staff learns, first hand, how to report and print news.

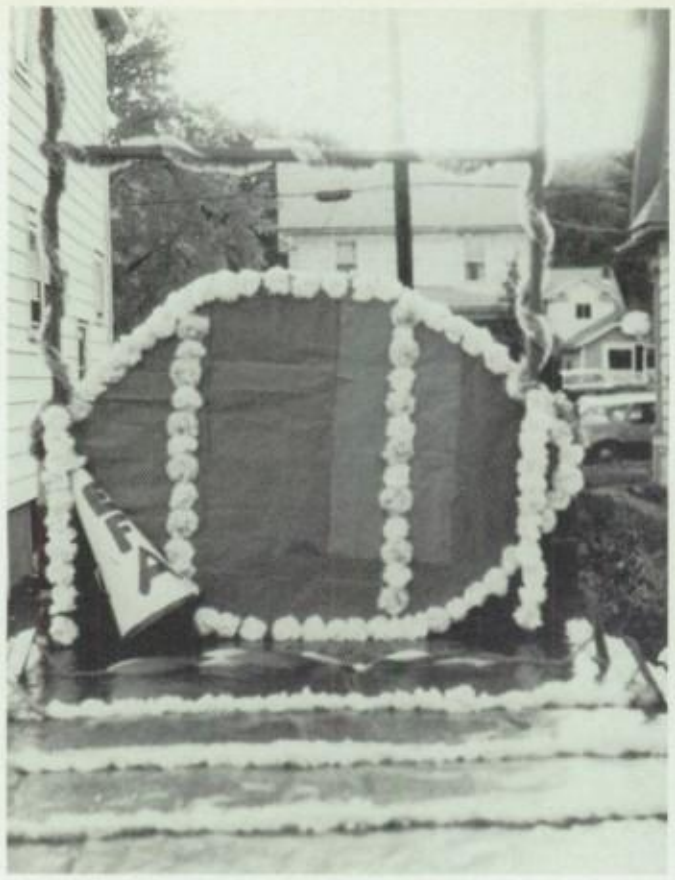
HOMECOMING



Winning float

Karen Barbieri . . . escorted by Matt Steed

The candidates

This year E.F.A. started a tradition that we hope will carry on. The Junior Class worked long and hard to perfect Homecoming weekend. Among the activities were: The homecoming float parade, the homecoming game at which the homecoming Queen, Karen Barberi, was crowned, and to top it all off, a Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Junior Class. The whole Event was a success and we hope the tradition lives on.

ERIE BELL

It has always been a tradition at E.F.A. that there be an Erie Bell Queen for the Erie Bell Game against Southside. This year was no different. Our Queen turned out to be Lisa Bucci. Even though we did not win the Erie Bell (The first time in 6 years) Our Queen and her court, as well as our football players, held their heads high and represented our school well. Congratulations.

Academy's own "Guys and Dolls"

Paul Holland and Sally Gladden, directors

Guys and Dolls

In May, 1983, the Academy stage was transformed into the streets of New York City. Audiences were entertained by the antics of that incomparable showgirl Miss Adlehaide (Carol Ziegler) as she tried to nab that crafty crapshooter, Nathan Detroit (Phil Stanton). Sarah Brown (Kelly Fowler) of the Save-a-Soul Mission converted the biggest sinner of them all — Sky Masterson (Bill Hackett). With colorful characters such as Big Jule (Dan Lynn), the drunk (Chuck Difasi), and fourteen of Academy's loveliest ladies in a striptease that will long be remembered, our thespians provided the community with two lively, fun-filled evenings.

The crew

Our "unsinkable" cast

arol Ziegler, Lynn DeWalt, Cena VanOsdol, Mike Bucholtz

Director Phil Lombard and assistant Jen Ferner

The energetic Barb Borrelli.

The Unsinkable Molly Brown

In April, 1984, a cast that spanned four grades performed a play that spanned two continents. Elmira audiences were treated to the story of Molly Brown (Cena Van Osdol), a spunky lady who never hollered "uncle" Aided by her husband, Johnny (Lynn DeWalt), she captured the hearts of the crowned heads of Europe, including the Prince and Princess DeLong (Carol Ziegler and Mike Bucholtz), much to the dismay of Mrs. McGlone (Kelly Fowler), the uppity head of Denver society. Under the direction of Phil Lombard and Barb Borrelli, the multi-talented cast provided entertainment worthy of the Academy name.

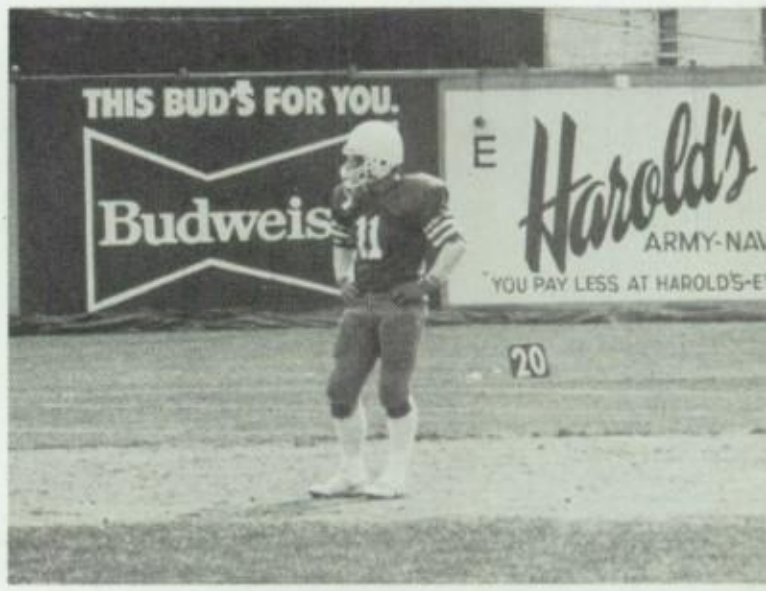
Help!

I got it!

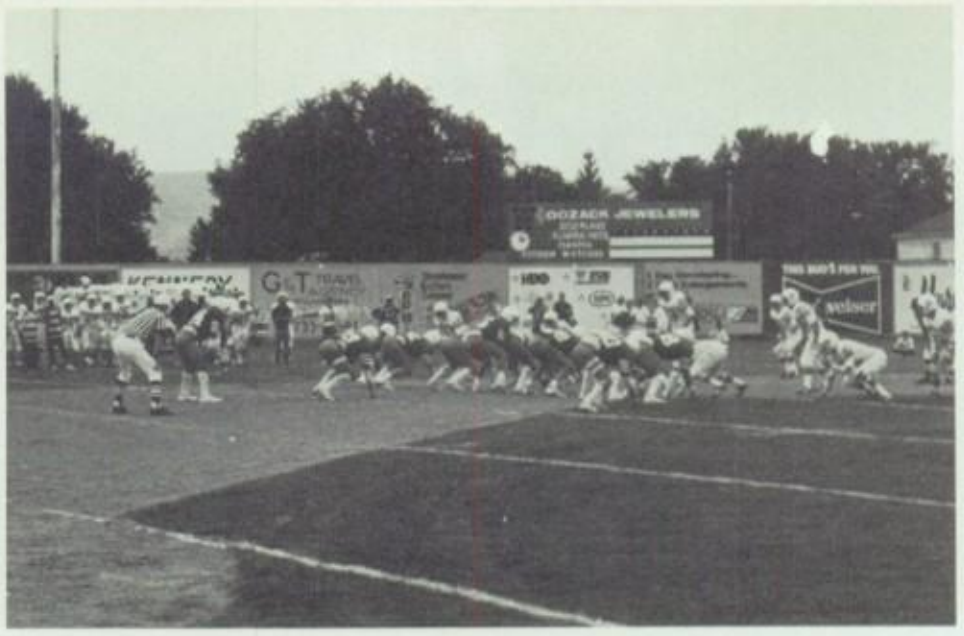
Just a little higher . . .



Where'd everyone go???

EFA Mermaids

Just beat it!



23, 42 . . . hike!

S—T—R—E—T—C—H

Bosom buddies

Take that!

Remember back in first grade, we thought that we were so old, The day that we had "show-and-tell" and brought in some "fool's gold."

Remember a few years later, we though we were divine, we teased the "first grade babies," at the ripe old age of nine.

Remember back in sixth grade, we looked at him with a sigh. And dreamed of all the coming days, in the huge new junior high.

Now it's eons later as graduation day draws near. We think of bittersweet memories and remember yesteryear.

Remember the hellos and laughter, talk over all our fears, reflect on learning and sharing before the good-byes and tears.

Wishful thinking!

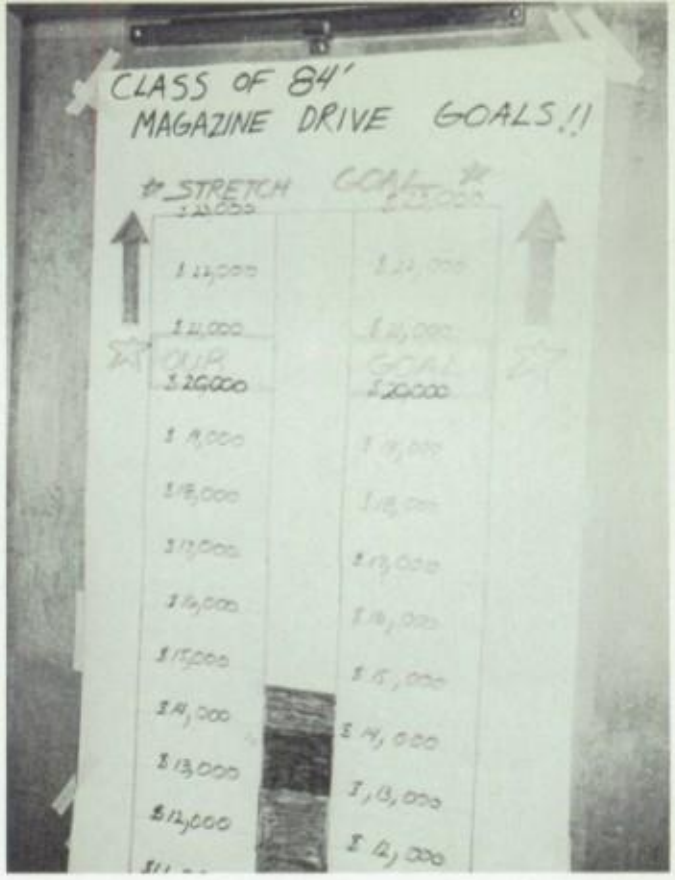
More junk mail . . .

Like, totally thrilling.

Us lose? I doubt it!

Fiddle me this, Batman.

What do you mean, the game's over?



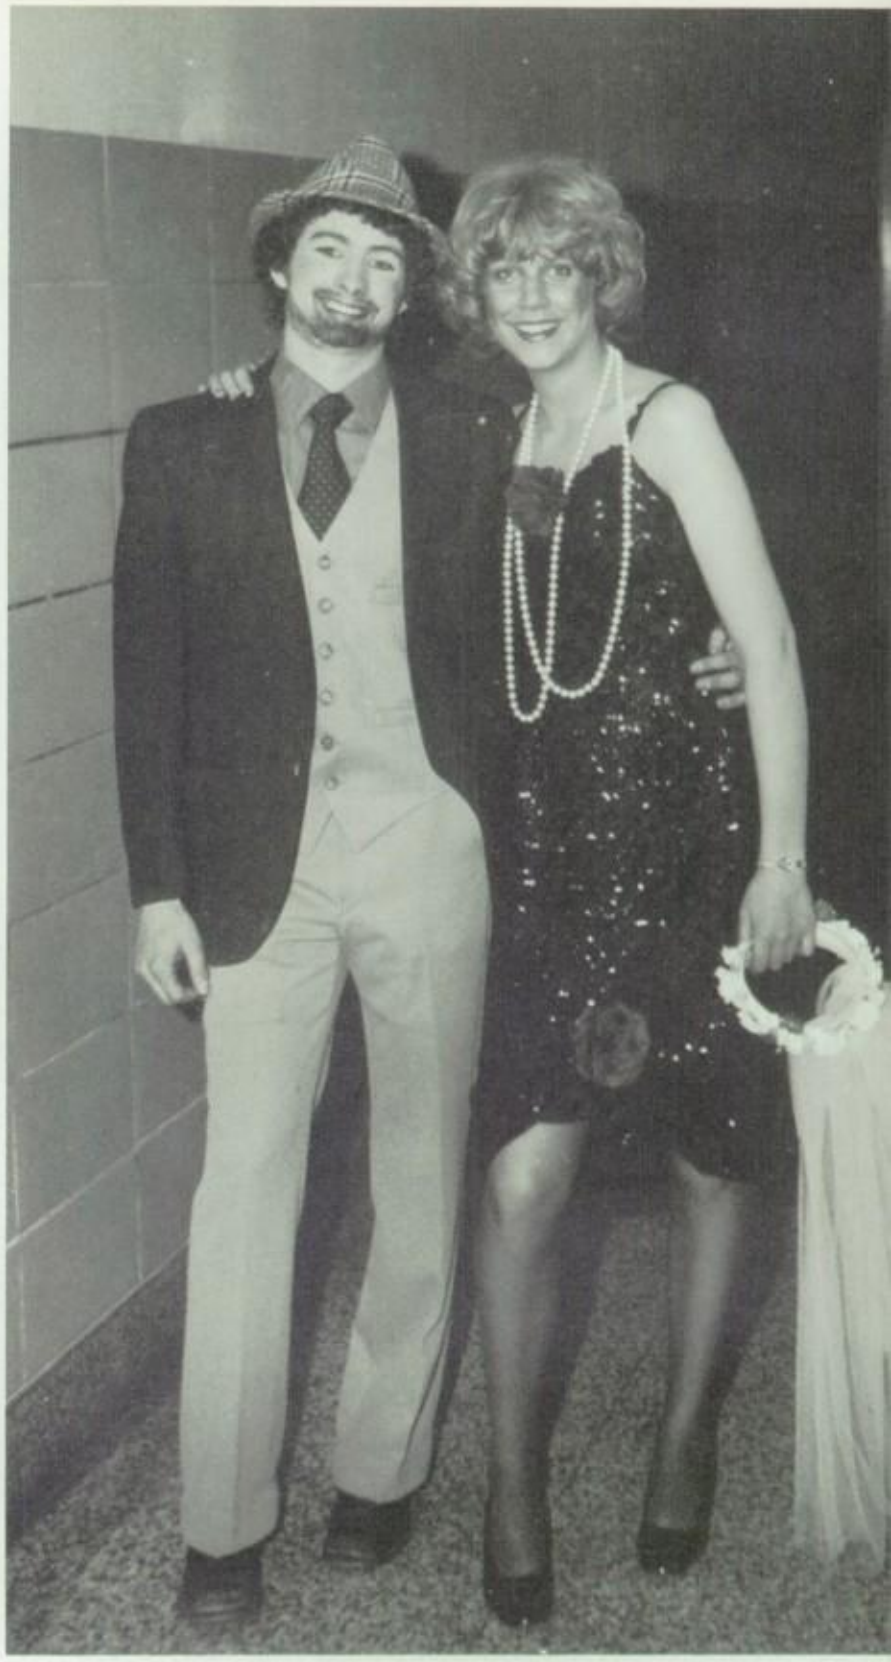
S . . . T . . . R . . . E . . . T . . . C . . . H!

Only at Academy!

Gee, Mrs. Todd . . . we were bored!

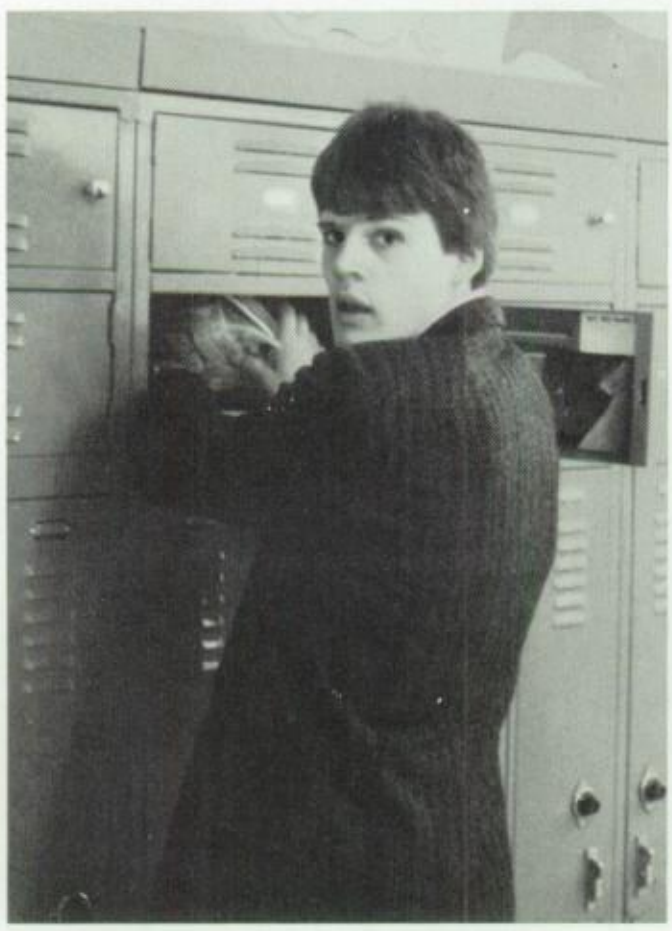
Glad to have a friend like you
Fair, and fun and skippin' free
Glad to have a friend like you
And glad to just be me

Carol Hall



Tonight I'm yours!

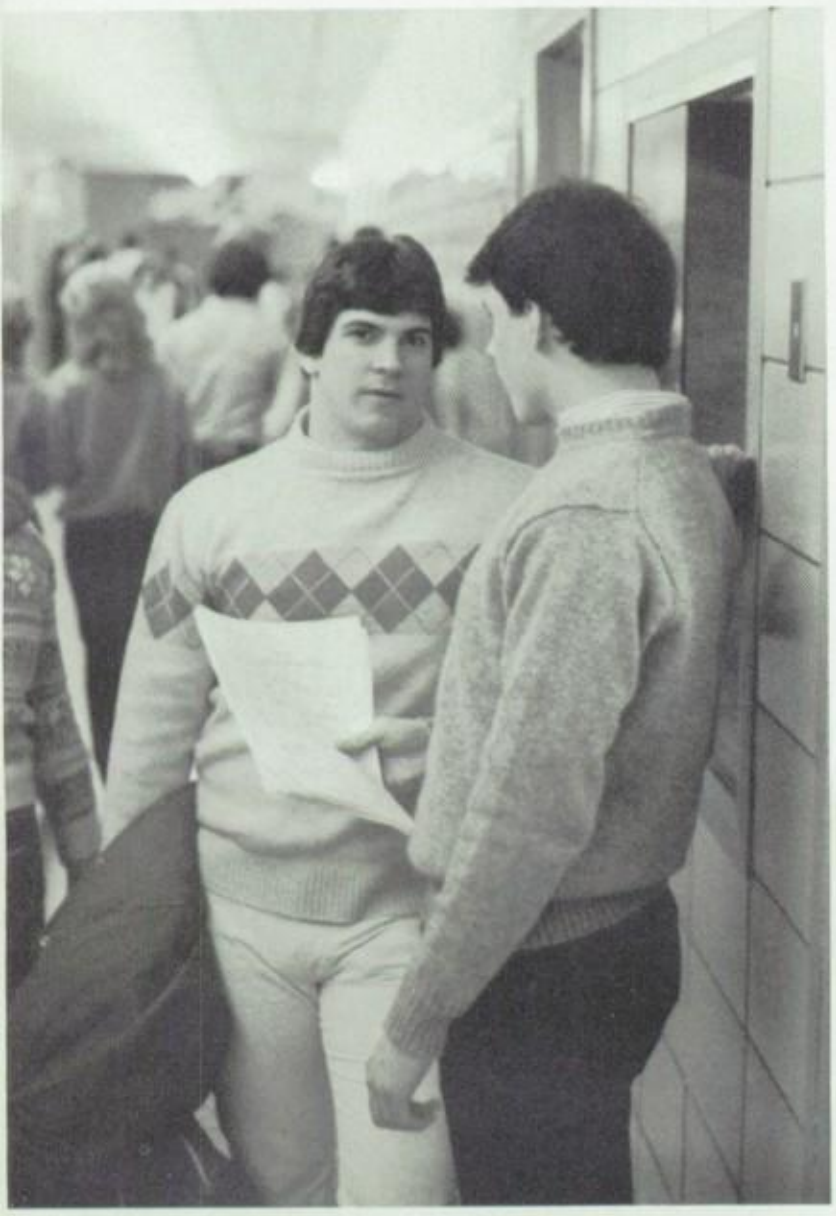
I'm sorry, Mr. Smith, please forgive me.



Huh?

Working for once!

Wild and crazy gals!



Quick, Matt — turn around.

My name?

Don't you dare.

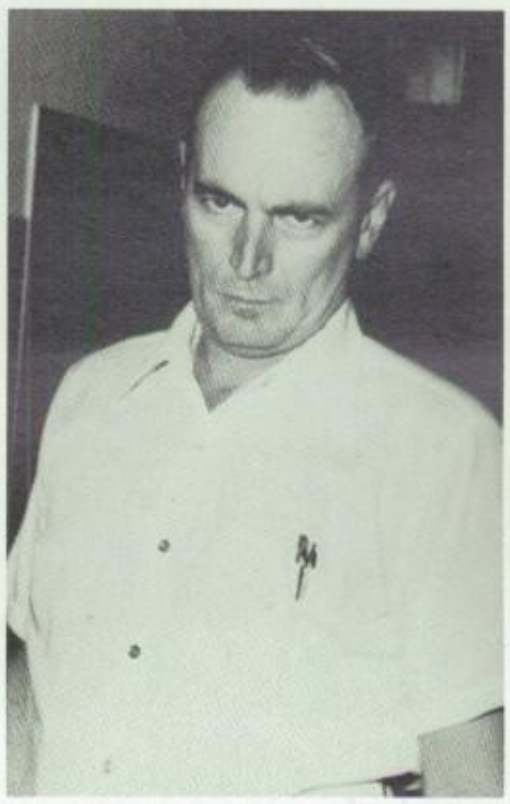
98 . . . 99 . . . 100

THAT WAS THEN —

Shy little Lia

"Good hand, Fitz?"

Can I eat my dessert first?



What ya talkin' about?

Clousseau?

Could you expand that a little???

THIS IS NOW

I hear detention calling!

Only one more left!

Atta boy, Lew-Lew

Dancin' the night away.

You what???

The Torch is proud to have Personius-Warne photography in our book. Thanks to professional photographer, Craig Hutchings.

Taylor Publishing Company has printed our yearbook for the past eleven years. The assistance of their representative, Robert McFadden, has enabled us to have the best yearbook possible.

A special thanks to artist Mike Deming. His caricatures, the artwork for the divider pages and the table of contents are truly assets to the 1984 Torch.
